WINNIPEG, September 15, 2011 For Manitobans needing a laugh during a deeply negative provincial election, Theatre by the River presents Canadian playwright Michael Healey's political satire Generous.

A minority government is on the verge of collapse; a ruthless oil executive tells the truth to a reporter; an effusive young law clerk engages in an excruciating post-coital chat with an aging judge; and a spectacular battle wages over a bucket of fried chicken. Through four politically-charged, sharply-written and hilarious stories, Michael Healey questions the idea of the selfless act.

Directed by Rod Beilfuss, Generous features outstanding Winnipeg actors Sharon Bajer, Sarah Constible, Kevin Klassen, Mel Marginet, Derek Leenhouts, Matthew TenBruggencate, James Firby, Kevin Anderson, Bernie Pastorin and Rod Beilfuss.
